

Konica Minolta has appointed Daisuke Mori as the new managing director of Konica Minolta Business Solution India. Mori has more than 25 years of hands on experience in the printing industry; he started his career in 1992 at Minolta's sales division, Japan.

Daisuke Mori has played a significant part through strategic and operational areas of Konica Minolta and has an excellent record of leading turnaround growth strategies in complex multi-channel distribution environment and has shown a tremendous strength in enriching corporate alliances and global partnerships. As the new MD of Konica Minolta, Daisuke Mori will be responsible for the strategic directions, operational executions and overall leadership of the Indian business.